

THE CLIMATE CHANGE LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE (CCLI) WELCOMES CHILDREN YOUTH & FAMILIES TO PARTICIPATE IN THE 4TH ANNUAL KIDS CLIMATE RIDE

- WHAT: Kids Climate Action Bike Ride, 7.5 miles escorted by the City of Santa Fe Police and CCLI parent chaperones (A PREMIUM IS PLACED ON SAFETY AND HELMETS ARE REQUIRED). The ride is followed by environmental education activities (with snacks included).
- WHEN: Sunday, October 20th 2013 11am - 1:30pm
- WHERE: Fort Marcy Park (in the past years we've done the event from TVM but this year we start and finish the bike ride at Fort Marcy Park)
- WHY: This is the 4th year of the event, kids learn the importance of taking collective action and developing personal leadership skills in support of climate and environmental stewardship
- WHO: Elementary age kids and older (The 7.5 mile bike ride has some significant hills to climb and ride down so those that are not confident bike riders and/or younger kids in pre-school may be accompanied/pulled in a Burly by one of their parents)

Adults may go on their own Climate Action Ride together while the kids are well taken care of on the kids ride - take the opportunity in this beautiful season to be be out biking!
